About

Rhea focuses on General Corporate, Real Estate and Employment matters. She provides legal opinions on Labour law, Intellectual Property Rights, Real Estate regulations and Telecom policies.

Rhea further advises clients on Employment law including matters related to unfair termination, dismissal, redundancy, revocation of job offers and planned temporary closing of companies. She also assists in drafting termination documents, and internal policies including Privacy Policy and Prevention of Sexual Harassment Policy.

In addition, Rhea assists in drafting and reviewing of commercial contracts including Letters of Intent, Lease Deeds, Master Service Agreements, Title Deeds and Non-Disclosure Agreements.

She has been practicing law since 2018. Prior to joining JSA, she was employed in the Research and Regulatory Mapping department at Ernst & Young GDS where her work included creating and updating regulatory compliance databases for financial institutions, performing risk assessments and researching on various compliance laws in tandem with client requirements.
