About

Dhruv regularly advises clients on transactional and advisory matters. His primary experience areas are mergers and acquisitions, private equity, and cross border investments.

Dhruv's role includes advising clients on Indian foreign exchange control regulations, entry strategies, and structuring transactions. He has experience in conducting legal due diligences on target companies operating in various sectors, and drafting and negotiating investment agreements. In addition to transactional work, he also regularly advises and represents clients on various aspects of Indian law (inter alia, general corporate compliance, governmental policies, and other areas of the firm's corporate practice).

Prior to joining JSA, Dhruv was part of the team leading Trilegal's Japan practice where he gained extensive experience in representing and advising Japanese conglomerates in their investments and operations in India.
